Waitlist Rules & Regulations -PLEASE READ CAREFULLY

- ✓ This waitlist application is for the individual whose name appears above, who has paid the appropriate deposit.
- ✓ Waitlist applications are non-transferable.
- ✓ Before an application will be accepted each vessel and trailer must be measured by Embarcadero Marina staff, in order to place the vessel and trailer in the appropriate length space to safely store that vessel and trailer.
- ✓ Each waitlist is according to size and is independent of each and every other waitlist. An applicant may not be transferred from one size waitlist to another. Each wait list application requires its own deposit.
- ✓ Each waitlist requires a refundable deposit equal to one current month's rent for the space size desired.
- ✓ Once an applicant reaches the top of the wait list & is offered a space, he/she has five (5) working days to accept the space.
- ✓ Failure to accept the space when offered two (2) times result in the applicant being placed at the bottom of the list.
- ✓ Failure to contact the Embarcadero Marina will result in the applicant being removed from the waitlist and the waitlist deposit being refunded.
- ✓ To obtain a space the applicant must first provide proof of current vessel registration / documentation, proof of insurance and execute a Boat Storage, Rental and Service Agreement in a timely manner. The applicant's name must appear on registration & insurance.
- ✓ The Embarcadero Marina reserves the sole right to decide whether a vessel and his/her owner are suitable for any space. The parties agree that the Embarcadero Marina shall have no liability for refusing to assign any specific berth to any vessel/owner.

NOTE: The Embarcadero Marina maintains a strict policy of non-discrimination. All spaces are assigned on a first come first served basis. Each waitlist is maintained according to sign-up date.
